My Battle with the Invisible Disability of Lyme Disease

AUTHOR: YOLANDA HADID

A former super-model and former cast member of “The Real Housewives of Beverly Hills” shares her story of battling Lyme Disease, a condition often referred to as the “Great Imitator” because its symptoms can mimic those of other illnesses. Her journey is a powerful testament to resilience and the importance of advocating for oneself in the face of invisible and often misunderstood medical challenges.
“Looking for Answers?” Hadid outlines how she never stopped trying to find answers to her health problems. Her memoir details how she crisscrossed the globe to try an astonishing array of alternative and ancillary treatments—ultimately ending up in a good place.
When eleven-year-old Alex Hudson complained that her leg hurt, her mother, Jody, thought it was just growing pains. But for the next ten years, Alex battled with what perplexed doctors deemed a medical mystery. Her mother Jody wrote this book and founded the Alex Hudson Lyme Disease Foundation in her daughter’s memory.
